

MVI Boot Camp Module 3: Smallpox, part 2

QUIZ

1. Jenner commercialized the smallpox vaccine; he didn't invent it.
2. Smallpox is transmitted through aerosolized droplets.
3. The last reported case of smallpox was in 1950
4. Routine smallpox vaccination stopped worldwide in 1972
5. The WHO declared smallpox to be eradicated in 1980
6. Quarantine and improved hygiene is more likely responsible to the elimination of smallpox than vaccination
7. Dr. Tom Mack, of the CDC, stated in 2001: “Even without mass ring vaccination, smallpox would have died out anyway. It was already on its way out. It just would have taken a little longer.”
8. The CDC stated their investigation discovered the cause of death from smallpox.
9. There are at least 9 different pox viruses known to cause human illness.
10. Residual stocks of live, variola major are held at the CDC and at a Russian research lab.
11. Side effect of today's smallpox vaccine administered to our military members can cause serious side effects, even death.