

5 Docs Boot Camp

QUIZ: History of Medicine Lost and Found

Dr. Lee Merritt - Week 1

1. The Hippocratic Oath is outdated and not useful for our time. T. F (F)
2. The first principle mentioned in the Hippocratic Oath is “Do no harm”. T. F. (F)
3. Socialized Medicine began in the late 20th Century in England. T. F. (F)
4. Socialized Medicine is based on Hippocratic principles of ethics. T. F. (F)
5. Hitler believed in healthy lifestyle, no smoking, clean air and exercise. T. F. (T)
6. Most physicians in America work for the Government, indirectly or directly. (T)
7. Hitler’s chief medical officer was a competent surgeon who initially saved lives reorganizing the trauma service. T. F. (T)
8. Permission of the Destruction of Life Unworthy of Life was a book written by Stalin to justify murder of Ukrainians. T. F. (F)
9. The German medical philosophy was based on the Utilitarian Ethic—that some lives were worth more than others. T.F. (T)
10. Ezekial Immanuel’s “Disability Adjusted Life Year” recommendation for American Medicine is based on the Utilitarian Ethic. T. F. (T)